

PRACTICE PAPER ( CLASS 10TH ENGLISH)

Q1. Read the following passage and answer the questions: (9 Marks)

"The Thar Desert, often called the 'Great Indian Desert', forms a natural boundary between India and Pakistan. It is the world's 17th-largest desert. In Rajasthan, it covers districts like Jaisalmer, Barmer, and Bikaner. Life in the desert is challenging but unique. The vegetation is sparse, consisting mostly of thorny bushes and the 'Khejri' tree, which is the state tree of Rajasthan. Despite the harsh climate, the desert is home to the Bishnoi community, known for their environmental conservation. The vibrant 'Desert Festival' in Jaisalmer showcases the rich culture, camel races, and folk music that define this sandy landscape."
